

Fundraising Ideas

Work Out to Help Out

Create a fundraising page and take on a new year challenge. It could be as simple as walking/cycling/running your commute or taking part in a local event!

Host an online murder mystery, ask your friends and family to pay an entry fee and donate proceeds to charity.

Murder Mystery

Sports - Games/Events

Bet on your favourite sports game/event between friends; give a small chunk of the proceeds to the winner and the rest to charity. You could even create a league of your own and have an ultimate winner at the end.

Challenge your friends, family or colleague's knowledge with an online quiz! Ask them all to donate to enter.

Virtual Quiz

Sweets in a Jar

Post a picture on social media of your sweets jar and ask friends and family to pay an entry fee to guess.

Why not change up your usual style all in the name of charity? Get creative with shaving, dying and styling to the max for donations

Hair Styles

St George's
Hospital Charity
Better care, healthier lives

E: giving@stgeorges.nhs.uk

T: 0208 725 4522

www.stgeorghospitalcharity.org.uk

Workout class

Host an online Zumba/Yoga/HIIT workout class if you're instructor qualified and donate entry fees.

Leave clues around your local area for your friends and family to find. They can compete individually or in household to reach the end prize.

Scavenger Hunt

Unwanted items

Sell off unwanted items in your household and donate proceeds to SGHC.

Set up a personal raffle and get friends, family and colleagues to donate for entry to win prizes such as a day off work (to be agreed with any manager!), paying for dinner when you can next go out etc.

Personal Raffle

Sponsored-athon

From a sponsored silence to a zumbathon, take on a sponsored marathon challenge of your choosing and get loved ones to sponsor you.

Have people in the office promise to do a certain activity i.e make coffee for a week, car wash, food hamper, dog walking or any odd jobs and auction off the promises!

Promise Auction

Get creative

Whether you're a keen painter, knitter or photographer, get your creative juices flowing and create items to sell to your friends, family and colleagues online for a donation.

St George's
Hospital Charity
Better care, healthier lives

E: giving@stgeorges.nhs.uk

T: 0208 725 4522

www.stgeorghospitalcharity.org.uk