

BAKE OFF

At work, at home, or anywhere you fancy. Invite your friends, colleagues and family to enjoy some Christmas cheer and ask for a minimum donation for a slice of cake.

Organise a Secret Santa and have a £5 supplement per person that goes towards your sponsorship.

SECRET SANTA

RAFFLE

Why not organise a mini raffle of various, such as, a day off work for a colleague, a pint for a friend, buying someone dinner etc.

Do you really need another pair of socks? Why not ask for a donation instead of Christmas presents this year?

DONATIONS

CARDS

Why not send a charity Christmas card this year? We have some amazing ones for sale for just £5 per pack or three packs for £12.

stgeorghospitalcharity.org.uk/shop

Already having a Christmas party at the office or at home? Turn it into a fundraiser and ask for a donation on the night!

PARTY

BID BID BID!

The perfect opportunity to get some 'money can't buy' Christmas presents for your loved ones. Join in the bidding from 6 December

givergy.uk/bidforgeorges

St George's
Hospital
Charity

Sing your way to your fundraising target and get some friends together to spread some Christmas cheer by singing loud for all to hear.

CAROLS

COLLECT

Hold a collection in your local community or make it even more simple and host a charity collection tin in your local pub, shop or restaurant.

Everyone loves to win- why not host a tombola. Ask everyone to donate a bottle of something, or some goodies, and ask for a £1 donation per raffle ticket.

TOMBOLA

MOVIE NIGHT

What's your favourite Christmas movie? Why not invite all your friends, family and colleagues to come and watch with you and donate!

Does your company offer matched giving? Why not ask your company to match anything that you raise!

MATCHED GIVING

CRAFTS

Make some Christmas crafts, tree decorations and cards and then sell them to your friends, family and colleagues for a donation.

Pin the tail on the reindeer, pass the present, Christmas charades, guess the christmas carol...why not hold a Christmas game night?

GAME NIGHT

St George's
Hospital
Charity

